

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

New York, NY - June 22, 2011 - Catch the new sounds of Band of Bones performing live at Saint Peter's Church

Wed. June 22nd
1-2 PM (one set only)
Midtown Jazz at Midday
Saint Peter's Church
54th Street corner Lexington Ave.

Suggested donation $10
Transportation: Lexington Ave. #6 train to 51st Street station

Inspired by the great 1950s group led by JJ Johnson and Kai Winding, with a hint of Count Basie, Band of Bones plays swinging big band jazz with a unique sound and instrumentation: EIGHT (count 'em) trombones plus a sensational rhythm section.

"A sound that demands attention...inventive and swinging!" - WABC New York

"The best big band you've never heard about!" - Hot House

"The trombone is alive and well!" - Jazz Inside

1/2 - Downbeat

Contact:
Dave Chamberlain
david@bandofbones.com
646-373-5372
www.bandofbones.com

###